Disclaimer

The shapes of the reference glyphs used in these code charts are not prescriptive. Considerable variation is to be expected in actual fonts.

For a complete understanding of the use of the characters contained in this excerpt file, please consult the appropriate sections of The Unicode Standard, Version 3.0 (ISBN 0–201–61633–5), as well as the Unicode Technical Reports and the Unicode Character Database, which are available online.

See <ftp://ftp.unicode.org/Public/UNIDATA/UnicodeCharacterDatabase.html> and <http://www.unicode.org/unicode/reports>

A thorough understanding of the information contained in these additional sources is required for a successful implementation.

Fonts

The fonts used in these charts were provided to the Unicode Consortium by a number of different font designers

See <http://www.unicode.org/unicode/uni2book/u2fonts.html> for a list.

Terms of Use

These charts are provided as a convenient online reference to the character contents of the Unicode Standard, Version 3.0. Proper Unicode support requires considerably more than just providing glyphs for characters, and requires consulting the Unicode Standard and the Unicode Technical Reports.

You may freely use these code charts for personal or internal business uses only. You may not incorporate them into any product or publication, or otherwise distribute them without express written permission from the Unicode Consortium.

The information in this file may be updated from time to time. The Unicode Consortium is not liable for errors or omissions in this excerpt file or the standard itself. Information on characters added to the Unicode Standard since the publication of version 3.0 as well as on characters currently being considered for addition to the Unicode Standard can be found on the Unicode website.
