Subject: A New Constructed Language (Dalgan)

Dear Verbix Team

First of all I would like to praise you for your web site. It's absolutely amazing.

Well, I want to inform you that I have been creating a new language which is 70% completed. This language is intended to be used by people on the internet basically, but there are some proposals to make a Grammar book of "Dalgan" (it's the name of this language).

It is an easy language based in Latin, Germanic, Eastern European languages and new words. The verbs are simple to learn and I think it is a beautiful language.

Some verbs in Dalgan and their conjugation:

Infinitive - lo dit (to be)
